Cienfuegos to Havana Aboard Variety Voyager

January 24 – February 1, 2019

Dear Travelers and Friends,

I invite you to join me in January for a cultural cruise along Cuba's Caribbean coast. From Cienfuegos to Havana, we will journey aboard a privately chartered yacht, discovering well-preserved colonial architecture and fascinating small museums, visiting talented artists in their studios, and enjoying private concerts and other exclusive events. I'm looking forward to presenting some of my favorite landmarks in their historic context with orientation lectures, and with the help of highly regarded local experts in historic preservation, art, and culture.

In Cienfuegos, view the city's French-accented buildings on an architectural tour before boarding Variety Voyager to travel to picturesque Trinidad. Admire the exquisite antiques and furniture displayed in the Romantic Museum and tour the studios of prominent local artists. Continue to Cayo Largo to meet local naturalists, and to remote Isla de la Juventud, to see the Panopticon prison (now a museum) that once held Fidel Castro. We will also visit with marine ecologists on María la Gorda, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, before continuing to Havana for our two-day finale. In Cuba's capital, stroll the cobblestone streets of Old Havana and meet up-and-coming artists at a private reception.

Variety Voyager features only 36 cabins and is the perfect conveyance for exploring Cuba. With the ship as our elegant hotel, we will engage with Cubans from all walks of life and enjoy longstanding relationships cultivated by Arrangements Abroad, with whom I have been traveling to Cuba with for many years. Licensed people-to-people programs like this one provide a legal opportunity to visit this incredible country and its people at a time when U.S. travel to Cuba has become more restricted.

I look forward to welcoming you on this singular exploration of a rapidly changing nation, in the congenial company of members of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Queens University of Charlotte, and the Association of Yale Alumni.

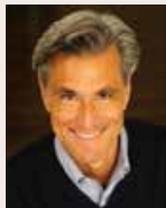

During an optional postlude in Santiago de Cuba, follow in the footsteps of the great American painter Winslow Homer, who visited the city in 1898.

Sincerely,

Hermes Mallea

Attend a private recital by the world-renowned Cienfuegos Chamber Choir. Then explore the internationally recognized Cienfuegos Botanical Garden, or visit a historic cigar factory to discuss the importance of tobacco to the Cuban economy. SATURDAY, JANUARY 26: TRINIDAD

This morning take a walking tour of charming Trinidad, also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Visit the Romantic Museum, filled with exquisite antiques, furniture, and other items once belonging to the local aristocracy. After lunch at a popular paladar, tour the studios of local artists and meet a santería priest (babalao) for a riveting talk on this Afro-Catholic religion, practiced by millions of Cubans. Return to Variety Voyager for dinner onboard and overnight at sea en route to Cayo Largo. B,L,D

SUNDAY, JANUARY 27: CAYO LARGO

Arrive on the tiny island of Cayo Largo for a visit to a local clinic, where we will meet medical staff and observe Cuba’s health-care system in action. Dinner is onboard as the ship sails to Isla de la Juventud. B,L,D

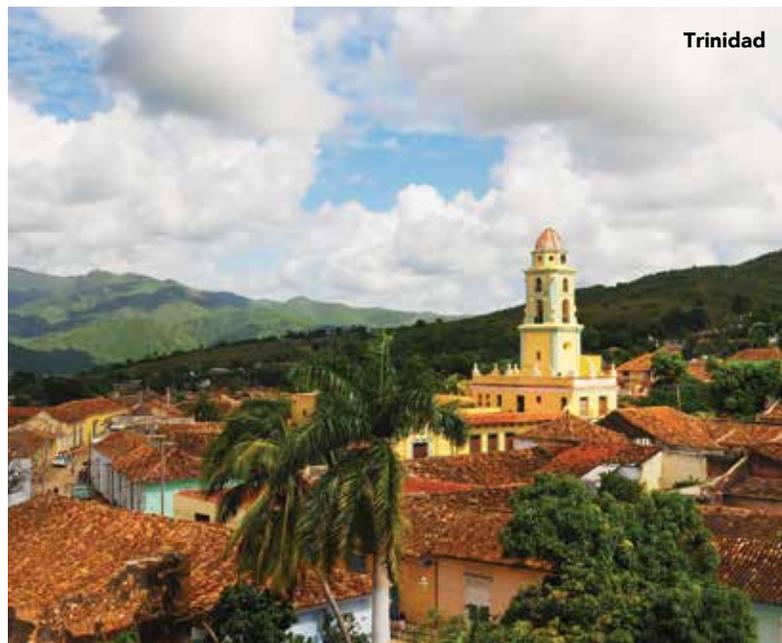

MONDAY, JANUARY 28: ISLA DE LA JUVENTUD

Step ashore on remote Isla de la Juventud, at turns a pirates’ hideout (and the inspiration for both Neverland and Treasure Island), penal colony, expatriates’ enclave, and an experiment in communist education. At the now-shuttered Presidio Modelo, a “model prison” of Panopticon design, we will visit the section where Fidel Castro was held, now a museum. Following lunch, visit an art school (pending scheduling), and explore the main square of Nueva Gerona, the capital. Return to the ship for a lecture and dinner. The ship sails in the evening for Maria La Gorda. B,L,D

TUESDAY, JANUARY 29: MARIA LA GORDA

Legend has it that this island’s name derives from the story of a beautiful, zaftig woman left behind when the place was a popular stop for pirates prowling the Caribbean. Savor our last day at sea as Variety Voyager cruises overnight to Havana, docking for two nights in the port of Old Havana. B,L,D

Visit the Colón Cemetery, whose ornate tombstones commemorate Cuban heroes, statesmen, and novelists.
